

Physikerin der Woche

Mach
mit!

Seit nun schon 2018 stellt Ihnen der DPG Arbeitskreis Chancengleichheit jede Woche eine inspirierende Physikerin und ihr Forschungsgebiet vor. Gerne können auch Sie sich an diesem Projekt beteiligen, um die Sichtbarkeit von Physikerinnen in Deutschland und / oder deutschen Physikerinnen im Ausland zu erhöhen.

Mehr Informationen zum Projekt und wie Sie Vorschläge einreichen können, sowie eine Übersicht aller bisherigen Teilnehmerinnen, finden Sie hier: www.physikerin-der-woche.dpg-physik.de

Early Career Award

Do you know of an early career researcher who has made an outstanding contribution to the scientific community?

Nominations are now open

The New Journal of Physics (NJP) Early Career Award recognises researchers, who are making a significant contribution to the scientific community.

Nominee criteria

The award is open to all researchers working in the physical sciences who meet the following criteria:

- Early-career scientist (less than five years since PhD qualification – i.e. defended in 2018 or thereafter – allowing for career breaks)
- Author of at least one article published in/accepted for publication in NJP in the 12 months prior to the award closing date of 16 June 2023.

The winner will be announced in October 2023 and will receive a prize of €3,000, plus one full APC waiver to be used in NJP by the end of 2024. The winner will also be entitled to a 50% APC waiver on the next two papers in NJP, and an official NJP Early Career Award certificate. Please note, in the event of more than one winner elected, the prize will be shared accordingly.
